Byron Bay

RETAILER / WHOLESALE IMPORTER - SOLD

Unfortunately, you have missed this one.

Stocking a diverse range of unique clothing, beautiful jewellery, natural cosmetics, musical instruments, Indigenous artefacts, hemp products, incenses, crystals, candles, arts, crafts, exotic homewares and worldly treasures, all quality items at fair and honest prices. Over the years we have secured priceless connections with reliable, honest and quality international manufacturers and suppliers. Loved within the community with a strong local customer base, combined with the consistent, tourist trade Maha Bazaar is always full of new, interested, excited customers.

Nestled between pristine beaches and subtropical rainforest, bustling Byron Bay is Australia's premier tourist destination, that over the past few years has shown unrivalled growth and still remains a tightly held area. The store is located on the quiet, tree lined Byron St, surrounded by bustling restaurants, plenty of parking, a backpackers hostel and several tourist motels.

The business enjoys a large shop frontage with 3 large glass windows and double glass doors. The shop is 7 metres x 6.5 metres. Well fitted out with good ergonomics and plenty of merchandising space. Colourfully decorated and presented, entering the store feels like a step back in time to the good old days of Byron. The building is safe and secure. Out the back is a courtyard garden and a changing room with natural lighting. It also has an underground shop car park and an extra secure storage packing room.

Key Features Include:

- Iconic store, Byron Bays' original hippy store.
- Great lifestyle business.
