MAKE AN OFFER!

Based on the Gold Coast, this business can be run from any location in Australia.

Offering a range of domestic cleaning services for a variety of clients including domestic households, NDIS, Airbnb, and real estates, this profitable business does it all and they even have the awards to prove it - Small Business Award Winner 2021 – Gold Coast.

With consistent regular and repeat work, you will find an array of regular clients including weekly, fortnightly, 3rd weekly and monthly bookings already in place. Currently booked out 2 months in advance and having to turn away new clients, this is your chance to capitalise on a growing and in-demand business.

Offering low overheads and no current marketing undertaken, all work received from word-of-mouth referrals, proving how highly regarded this business truly is. Raving reviews across the internet only cement this excellent business reputation and standing within the community.

There is already a team of highly skilled and meticulous long term contracted cleaners in place who are aware of the sale and wish to continue with the new owner, ensuring a smooth transition. The current owner works approximately 10 hours per week managing the business, so this is the perfect investment for a motivated owner operator looking to maximise profits or a savvy investor looking for their next lifestyle business.

Key Features:

- Profitable business model with low overheads
- Award-winning company
- Regular and repeat work with advanced bookings
