PROFITABLE & GROWING TECHNOLOGY COMPANY - SOLD

Unfortunately, you have missed this one.

This is your chance to take the reins of an innovative and fast-growing technology company specialising in safety tracking products designed for personal safety, the health industry, and the corporate sector. This business is built with a strong recurring revenue base and compounding returns.

Currently serving the Australian domestic market, there is a strong enough demand to grow into New Zealand and beyond. Profitable and expanding, now is the ideal time for a new owner to come in and continue the success of this well-established business.

A registered NDIS provider with loyal partners and resellers, this business runs 100% online with heavy investment made into developing a customer-friendly device management system that enables customers to locate their products in seconds, alert health professionals, monitor GPS tracking, and much more.

The apps are compatible with both IOS and Android, so they can be used everywhere. All of the hard work has gone into fine-tuning the product range, marketing, web presence, and other aspects of the business, so a smooth transition of ownership is ensured.

Key Features:

- Passive business model, harnessing daily sales and SAAS recurring revenue for compounding returns.
- Profitable and growing, online technology business.
