LUCRATIVE & SUCCESSFUL LONGSTANDING PIZZA SHOP – SOLD

Unfortunately, you have missed this one.

Highly regarded for its generously topped, great-tasting pizzas and 5-star service, this longstanding hospitality business has built a booming customer base with both takeaway and delivery revenue streams in place. After 30 years of successful operations, this proven earner is primed and ready for new ownership with all of the hard set up work already done for you!

Centrally situated in the heart of a bustling regional city in the New South Wales Northern Tablelands, the restaurant is extremely well-exposed and hard to miss. Positioned on the corner of a busy main arterial with plenty of parking available for customers, the shop is simple to access for both locals and tourists headed through the city centre. With motels, dealerships, bottleshops, cafes, schools, and many other small businesses nearby, the store has become a pillar of a busy shopping area that remains consistently busy throughout the year.

Boasting hundreds of 5-star reviews online and a modern website with online ordering capabilities, the business is optimised for online sales and ranks highly when searched. With an efficient POS system in-store and extremely fast service, the business is well set up and consistently satisfies its loyal customers.

With operational procedures and manuals in place that junior staff can follow to help deliver, cook, and manage the business, you will be able to walk in with the confidence that all the initial work to ensure operations run smoothly has already been done. Fully equipped for large catering orders and high-volume sales, everything you need to continue profitably servicing this business's large clientele is included in the sale!
