Are you an animal lover looking for a peaceful lifestyle surrounded by pristine nature and wildlife? Looking for a profitable business with thousands of active clients? Look no further than this thriving boutique kennel and cattery!

Situated on a peaceful 20-acre farm only minutes away from one of Victoria's favourite holiday destinations, the business boasts a fantastic island lifestyle location. With minimal competition in the region, the kennel is in extremely high demand catering to both locals and holiday-makers. This location is open and safe for pets, allowing them to enjoy the outdoors whilst being supervised.

Recording strong year-on-year growth and convincingly navigating through the pandemic, the business is a great earner and provides a working owner with a rewarding lifestyle at the same time. With thousands of active clients and huge potential to grow even further with a highly popular doggy daycare program, this is a business that is showing no signs of slowing down.

Utilising a dedicated booking system to manage a fiercely loyal and repeat client base, the business is able to operate efficiently. With a strong online and social media presence, the clientele is consistently engaged and numerous leads are captured online in addition to the large amount of word-of-mouth referrals the kennel/cattery receives. Everything you need to take the reins of this incredible
