SOLD BY BONZA BUSINESS & FRANCHISE SALES

This customer saved over $25000 in commission by using Bonza Business & Franchise Sales.

A brilliant opportunity has arisen for the purchase of a well established Party Hire Business on the edge of the Yarra Valley in Melbourne. All the hard work has been done. The stock is in super condition, the business runs like clockwork and there is an extensive list of ongoing and new customers on the database.

The success of a hire business is based on good quality equipment maintained as new, excellent storage organisation, great customer service and reliable operating systems. The original owners have created this well known and respected business over the last 25 years building up a loyal group of ongoing customers and the creation of an extensive new client list. Confirmed orders for new events up until May 2018.

Equipment has been updated to suit current trends together with maintaining the staple items of any party hire company.

A visit to the company's premises will delight any potential buyer who appreciates the importance or organisation and systems created by the owners essential to the hire industry.

Together with a neat, functional and well priced rented factory, there is great online presence together with a complete online ordering system and inventory availability tally allowing customers to either book and pay online themselves or contact the office for personalised service.

The company services all events from small parties and corporate events to weddings.

They have a well-respected name in the community with a brilliant range of products kept in excellent condition.
