

34313 WASTE MANAGEMENT & EQUIPMENT HIRE - HIGH GROWTH OPPORTUNITY

This New South Wales business offers an exceptional opportunity for those seeking a lucrative investment in the commercial waste and equipment hire industry. Whether buying this as a standalone investment or as a bolt-on to an existing business in the same space, this business is well worth reviewing.

The business, with over 35 years of experience, has earned a stellar reputation for its commitment to environmental sustainability and impeccable service. Holding an EPA license, the business specialises in garbage and rubbish collection, building waste recycling, liquid waste processing and recycling used cooking and motor oils. The business also hires out a range of waste management equipment and related services for events.

Boasting high visibility with a prime location along a busy highway frontage, this business has secured a substantial market share with minimal competition. Servicing New South Wales, the business has cultivated a robust and diverse client base and has the facilities and demand to expand further. Customer reviews speak volumes, reflecting the positive feedback received for its top-notch service and commitment to eco-friendly practices.

The current owner, after decades of successful operation, is ready to pass the torch to a new visionary. With a full team of experienced staff in place, minimal owner involvement is required, allowing for a seamless transition. The business's profitability is evident in its exceptional financial figures, showcasing consistent growth each year. As the waste management industry continues to evolve, there is ample room for expansion.
