34135 LUCRATIVE WHOLESALE & ONLINE SUPPLIER OF READY MADE MEALS

For over a decade, this well-established ghost kitchen has been servicing long-standing, high-net-worth wholesale clients with top-tier, ready-made meals. Now available for $99,000 due to the owners' retirement and a desire for a quick sale, this thriving business is perfect for an enthusiastic and ambitious new owner ready to elevate it to the next level of sales development.

The business operates from a spacious 125 sq. meter commercial kitchen, including a large cold room, fully equipped with quality Electrolux equipment and stainless steel preparation tables. Additionally, it features three different style packing machines (Flow Wrapper, MAP packer, Vacuum Packing) and a user-friendly website shop (WordPress).

The business consistently earns 5-star ratings for food safety and compliance from the Brisbane City Council, thanks to its meticulous kitchen and high-quality ingredients, including lean cuts of beef and chicken free from additives or preservatives. This commitment to excellence allows the business to command premium prices for its delectable offerings.

A seasoned chef with international expertise leads the efficient production process, supported by fully documented and easy-to-follow recipes. This opportunity suits a savvy social media marketing foodie, with or without commercial cooking experience, or an experienced operator looking to expand while reducing overhead costs. With a loyal base of long-term repeat clients and an impeccable reputation, this business awaits a passionate entrepreneur to lead it into the next chapter of success.
