34677 UNIQUE SPORTING EVENT BUSINESS – MOBILE OPERATIONS

This exceptional pop-up sporting event business is now available for purchase! With a core mission to bring people together through fun and fitness, this business has become renowned for facilitating outstanding events and delivering exceptional customer service. The diverse clientele includes corporations, schools, councils, festivals, private parties, sporting clubs, hens and bucks parties and more!

The heart of the events is a customised inflatable arena, where game formats and tournament software make event facilitation a breeze. Over eight years, the business has continuously innovated to create compact, super-mobile equipment that anyone can set up, eliminating the need for a warehouse or office and significantly reducing overhead costs. Catering to both kids and adults, the business constantly uncovers new demographics and engages in meaningful community initiatives.

Unlike many 9-to-5 businesses, this venture stands out with its unique purpose, offering a fun, fulfilling, and satisfying lifestyle for the business owner. Engage with people, get them active, and enjoy the experience yourself. Another fantastic benefit of this business is the opportunity to travel, allowing the owner to explore incredible places and meet amazing individuals. Additionally, the business includes its own exclusive territory, providing a dedicated market area to operate without competition, ensuring steady demand and growth potential.

Instant quotes are available through its user-friendly website, and the catchy, bright, and humorous branding ensures memorability. An active presence on social media, with fresh and unique content, keeps the business engaged with its audience and contributes to a glowing 5-star Google rating.
