Unfortunately, you have missed this one.

Looking for a profitable and reputable allied health business with a solid track record of success? Your search ends here! This exciting opportunity presents a thriving mobile occupational therapy and speech pathology service, catering to NDIS clients in the community. With a well-established name and a loyal client base, this business offers not just stability but significant potential for growth.

Renowned for delivering an exceptional level of care, this premier allied health company only employs senior clinicians who bring a wealth of expertise and professionalism to every interaction. It's no wonder this business is regarded as one of the region's top providers—its reputation for ethical practices and service excellence is unmatched. Clients know they're in good hands when working with this team, which always goes above and beyond to meet their needs.

Fully mobile and preferred by NDIS clients, the company's clinicians travel to homes and community settings, making therapy more convenient and accessible. The business runs like a well-oiled machine, thanks to its experienced management team. With a skilled Practice Manager handling the administrative side and a senior Clinical Manager overseeing clinical operations, the business requires minimal owner involvement. All the elements are in place to guarantee a seamless transition of ownership while preserving the business's renowned high standards.

Key Features:

- Profitable business with an established client base & stable referral sources.
- Run under management, offering owner flexibility & a smooth transition.
- Senior clinicians with extensive expertise & professionalism.
- Fully mobile, preferred by NDIS clients for home & community visits.

This business also fosters a culture of continuous learning and professional growth, offering great support for both staff and clients. With a strong and stable referral network, the business enjoys steady demand and excellent financial performance. Now is the time to take the reins of this outstanding allied health
