35169 THRIVING BICYCLE RETAIL, REPAIR & HIRE SHOP

Looking to take the handlebars of a business that's all about customer service and community spirit? This well-established bicycle sales, repair, and hire shop stands out with minimal competition and a loyal, returning customer base.

The business has cultivated a welcoming, customer-focused environment by sponsoring local clubs and actively engaging with schools through partnerships and initiatives. With a new school contract secured for the upcoming term, the business is primed for even greater visibility and deeper community engagement.

Situated in a vibrant shopping precinct, the shop enjoys prime access to popular bike pathways and is conveniently located near public transport. Its close proximity to popular cycling groups guarantees a steady flow of customers. The online store is seamlessly integrated with the stock management system, making it easy to maintain. Furthermore, excellent Google reviews and a strong social media presence highlight the business's sterling reputation.

In addition to individual customers, the business provides fleet maintenance for local companies and receives regular referrals from businesses without their own fleet services. With untapped growth potential in areas like mountain bikes, e-scooters, and e-bike rentals, there's a wealth of opportunities to explore. With profits increasing year after year, the foundation is firmly in place for a new owner to capitalise on these opportunities and expand the business further.

Key Features:

- Consistently growing profits year after year, with minimal local competition.
- Customer-centric with a strong community of loyal, returning customers.
- High growth potential in mountain bikes, e-scooters & e-bike rentals
