AUSTRALIAN MARGARITA MIXER BRAND - SOLD

Unfortunately, you have missed this one.

An incredible opportunity awaits to own a fast-growing, all-natural Margarita mixer brand, proudly Australian-made and completely free from preservatives, additives, and refined sugars. This brand has perfected a recipe that guarantees a delicious, authentic Margarita experience using only the cleanest, high-quality ingredients.

With multiple revenue streams across wholesale, retail, and event clients, the business has seen consistent growth, driven by Australia's increasing demand for natural, premium cocktail mixers. Offering the flexibility of being primarily run from home, this business can be managed remotely from anywhere in the country, with minimal warehousing needed for product storage and distribution.

The brand boasts established partnerships with numerous independent retail and liquor stores nationwide, providing a solid platform for further retail expansion. Its vibrant online presence and fun, recognisable branding have cultivated a loyal customer base and contributed to a surge in direct-to-consumer sales through the website.

While the business has seen impressive growth under sole ownership, it's ripe for further expansion with the right investment of time and resources. There is vast potential to scale by building a dedicated sales team to target wholesale accounts with bottle shops, delis, gourmet grocers, and retail stores—taking this business to new heights.
