35005 ESTABLISHED AND PROFITABLE TEST & TAG BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

Now is the perfect time to step into a highly regarded and established business, specialising in the testing and tagging of electrical and fire safety equipment. Founded in 2013, this profitable operation has shown steady growth and benefits from a loyal customer base, providing a reliable income stream.

Run efficiently by a single person, the business operates with minimal overheads, making it an ideal prospect for someone seeking autonomy. Located in a light industrial area, it is perfectly positioned for further expansion. With profitable results every year since its establishment, this business offers a solid foundation and promising potential.

The business delivers a wide range of services, including the inspection of electrical devices, 3-phase systems, RCDs (safety switches), fire extinguishers, hose reels, and emergency lighting. Renowned for its dependability and high standards throughout South East Queensland, it has cultivated a loyal clientele, ensuring consistent revenue.

As the current owner is retiring, this sale represents a prime opportunity for a driven individual to take over a well-established and successful business. Ideal for those looking to work independently and expand within a critical industry, this is an opportunity not to be missed.
