35253 HIGHLY PROFITABLE HYDRAULICS SOLUTIONS BUSINESS – 20+ YEARS

Step into a business that's been keeping industries moving smoothly for over two decades! This hydraulic solutions business has built a strong reputation for providing fully engineered solutions and high-quality parts and systems to various sectors, including manufacturing, transport, pharmaceuticals, construction, and food production.

With a robust product lineup that markets locally and Australia-wide, the business is renowned for its exceptional customer service, reliability and expertise in a highly specialised field. Customer relationships are at the heart of this business, with repeat clients who have relied on its services for decades. A commitment to personal, face-to-face interactions has built a loyal client base and ensures a steady income stream.

Specialising in parts sales with a streamlined "box-in, box-out" system, the business easily drives repeat business. Along with parts, the business provides installation, maintenance, and breakdown support, while also designing and manufacturing custom components and systems for OEMs and specialised projects with precision and innovation.

Located in Melbourne's northern suburbs, this business operates from a fully equipped workshop with excellent access to Melbourne's north, west, east, and southeastern areas. With a well-established website, streamlined systems and processes, and a skilled team managing daily sales, enquiries and orders, the business runs seamlessly. Whether you prefer a hands-on role to drive growth or a more relaxed, passive approach, this setup offers flexibility for the new owner.
