35336 LUCRATIVE DRY CLEANING BUSINESS – 35+ YEARS

Nestled in a bustling town centre, this well-established dry cleaning business has been a cornerstone of the community for over 35 years. Renowned for its friendly service and meticulous attention to detail, it caters to the general public with an array of services that include all aspects of dry cleaning, from wedding dresses to leather and furnishings. The business enjoys a loyal customer base built on trust and quality.

With very limited competition in its area, this unique opportunity allows you to step into a thriving market with significant growth potential. The prime location offers undercover parking and wheelchair access, making it convenient for customers while being close to public transport ensures high foot traffic.

Owner-operated with support from casual staff, the business ensures smooth operations and provides exceptional service that keeps clients returning. As word spreads about its outstanding offerings, enquiries continue to grow, making now an ideal time for new ownership.

Despite having no established online presence, there is ample room for expansion through digital marketing strategies that could further elevate brand visibility and attract new clientele. With such strong foundations already laid, the future holds limitless possibilities waiting to be explored.

Key Features:

- Profitable business model with immense growth opportunities.
- Comprehensive range of services including specialty items like wedding dresses.
- Established reputation within the community backed by long-term client
