Get in quick to secure the chance to purchase this established and profitable business today to reap the endless rewards that follow!

This popular cafe and takeaway store offers a range of fresh and wholesome meals for breakfast and lunch. Trading 6 days a week, this is the perfect opportunity for someone to step in and expand on what is already a thriving business.

Located in a large town on the Fraser Coast, the café is situated in the middle of the CBD on a busy main street. Surrounded by local businesses and national retailers driving a large volume of foot traffic along the street, the café has become a firm favourite within the local community.

Outstanding customer service is a contributing factor for the business's success with raving reviews to be seen online. The warm and inviting dining room is buzzing with clientele enjoying a coffee and with no limits on trading hours, the area could easily be used for private functions after-hours. There is excellent growth potential in this business.
